41st Annual Project Learning Tree

One hundred and thirty-three (133) School of Teaching and Learning Field 3/YLR 1 Teacher Candidates along with New Waverly 3-5 grade students completed 6 hours of Continuing Professional Development on Friday, November 3 at University Camp in Riverside, TX. This twice-yearly PLT event with our community partners, The Texas A&M Forest Service and the Texas Forestry Association. This SHSU/TFA/TFS partnership marks our 41st professional development event over the past 20 years. Special thanks to our partners, Ted Stevens, Education Director, TFA; Ben Plunket, District Forester, TFS, and Faculty Members, Dr. Andrea Foster, Dr. Lisa Brown, Dr. Jaime Coyne, Dr. Susan Harte, Dr. Jackie Ingram and Dr. Craig Toney for organizing and supporting this event. "No Child or Teacher left inside!"

New Bearkat Student Book Club - Join Now!

Are you interested in finding books to share with themes that resonate with you and your experiences? Do you long for a space where YOUR book choices not only inspire discussions but also help make sense of things? Look no further!

In this book club, we empower you to shape the narrative. Every semester, YOU get to select the book that speaks to you, ensuring each session is a personal voyage. Whether you're drawn to stories that mirror your own path, or eager to step into entirely new shoes, we've got a place for you.

Anticipate animated conversations, diverse perspectives, and a lively community who understand the power of storytelling. Together, we'll uncover stories that echo your own experiences or bring a fresh perspective to create belonging and friendship.

We'd like to explore stories with you and hear what you think!
